Background of the Program:

National Reading Day is celebrated to commemorate the death day of Puthuvayil Narayan Panicker; a keralite teacher who contributed to library movement in kerala. He is widely recognized as Father of Library Movement in the state of kerala. The day is observed on 19th June every year. This day serves as a tribute to PN Panicker's tireless efforts in transforming society through his literacy movement in India.

Brief Description:

The Department of English organized National Reading Day, on 19th of June to commemorate the contributions of Mr. Puthuvayil Naryana Panicker to library movement in Kerala. The program began around 11A.M at Seminar Hall. The program was presided over by Dr. k. Srinivasa Rao; Principal who explained about the importance of Reading to students. Mr.Ch. Hari Babu, Vice-principal of the college continued his speech presenting the history behind the event. The event continued with the speeches of IQAC Coordinator, Dr.K.V.S. Koteswara Rao and Academic Coordinator, Mr. Ramakishore Behara. As a part of the event small reading competition was organized to students where they were made to read a specific paragraph from the book, "Jawaharlal Nehru's Speeches vol 1949-1953". Total 16 participants from all groups participated in the competitions out of which, Ms. Sk. Raafiya from II B. Sc and Ms. Hancy Emeema from III B.A stood as winners in first and second places. Prizes were distributed to the winners by the Principal on the same day of the event, making out the event a successful one.
