

ACTIVITY REPORT

S. No.	Content	Name
1	Name of the Programme	DEATH ANNIVERSARY OF MAHAKAVI JASHUVA
2	Date & Time	24.07.2022 &amp; 11.30 AM – 12.30 PM
3	Conducted by	DEPT OF TELUGU
4	No. of Students attended	70
5	Chief Guest	Dr. K. Srinivasa Rao, Principal
6	Convenor	Dr. G. Swarna Latha

Objectives:

To make the students aware of the importance of Jashuva in the history of Telugu literature.

Description of the event:

Gurram Jashuva was a legendary poet in the Telugu literary world with his immense wisdom and the struggle he faced in his life due to the cast based discrimination Jashuva has written the poetry with an universal approach. He was born on 28th September 1895 and died on 24th July 1971. He belongs to the village Chatragadrapadu near Vinukonda city. He has been considered as the earliest dalit poets in Telugu. He was recognized with many awards by the government of India.

The activity was recited over by the principal Dr. K. Srinivasa Rao. He praised Jashuva's hardwork and suggested the students to take Jashuva as an example. Program organizer Dr. G. Swarna Latha spoke about the life history of Gurram Jashuva and the importance of his writing in the literary world. Academic coordinator Sri. P. Kishor Behra explained the importance of poets and writers in shaping of society. Economics lecturer Sri. G. Anjaya who is a stage artist recited many of Jashuva's poem.

Some of the students also recited the poems of Jashuva and explained the meaning.

Outcome:

- Students were able to understand the place of Jashuva in the history of Telugu literature.

PRESENTING JASHUVA'S LIFE HISTORY BY Dr. G. Swarna Latha, Dept In-charge

FACULTIES AND STUDENTS WITNESSING THE EVENT

ACADEMIC ADVISOR'S SPEECH

ECONOMICS LECTURER RECITING JASHUVA'S POEMS

