- To enable the participants to understand the multifaceted dimensions of legendary poet, Dr. C. Narayana Reddy through his literary works.

Description of the event:

Dr. C. Narayana Reddy is an Indian Telugu language poet and writer. He had produced over 80 literary works including poems, prose plays, lyrical plays, translations and ghazals. He was also a professor, lyricist, actor and Rajya Sabha member. He was born on 29th July 1931 in a village Hanumajipet, Rajanna Sirisilla district. He won many awards including Gnanpeeth along with Saahithya Academy award etc., He was honoured with Padma Sri, Padma Bhushan by the Indian Government. He wrote more than 3500 film songs which have literary value. He passed away at the age of 85. As Dr. C. Narayana Reddy's birth anniversary is nearing in this month the department of Telugu planned a webinar to remember his literature again which would be a tribute to Cinare for fruitful effect we invited great orators from different universities and from great institutions.

The inaugural session started at 10:15 sharp as decided previously. The convenor of the webinar, Dr. G. Swarna Latha invited the college principal Dr. K. Srinivasa Rao to the stage who chaired the meeting and the chief guest Dr. Rama Jyothsna Kumari, RJD and all the 7 speakers to the stage.

Principal of the college welcomed all the participants to the webinar. He stressed upon the importance of webinars/seminars which can serve as great resources of the transfer of knowledge. He congratulated the department of Telugu for hosting the first national webinar in his tenure as a principal. RJD madam spoke a few words about the uniqueness of Dr. Cinare in Telugu literature.

The webinar went on well with the continuous valuable speeches by the resource persons. Prof. Madhu Jyothi from Sri Padmavathi Mahila University delivered speech on historical lyrical ballads of Cinare. She blended the historical issues with lyrical ballads and described the content accordingly. Second speaker, Prof. Darla Venkateswara Rao from Hyderabad Central University spoke about the research abilities of Dr. Cinare with many examples where innovative vision of Cinare is seen. Third speaker Prof. N.V. Krishna Rao from Acharya Nagarjuna University delivered a wonderful speech on Cinare free-verse poetry. He quoted many examples and came to a conclusion that Cinare poetry is full of humanism. Fourth speaker Prof. V. Nagarajya Lakshmi retired principal rendered a great speech on Viswambhara which was awarded with Gnanpeeth. She extracted the essence of Viswambhara – The Human Journey from ancient to modern ages and human's spiritual, cultural, artistic development. Fifth speaker Dr. U. Lakshminarasimha Rao, an academician spoke about Cinare movie songs. As he has done his Ph.D on Cinare movie songs he analyzed the literary values with many examples. Sixth speaker Dr. Koyi Koteswara Rao from City college, Hyderabad, gave a valuable speech on Prapanchapadulu which is an experimental literary work by Dr. Cinare. Seventh Speaker Dr. P. Varija Rani from Osmania University talked about Cinare ghazals. She explained the essence of Cinare ghazals and differentiated them from Urdu ghazals. She sang some of the ghazals and mesmerized the participants.

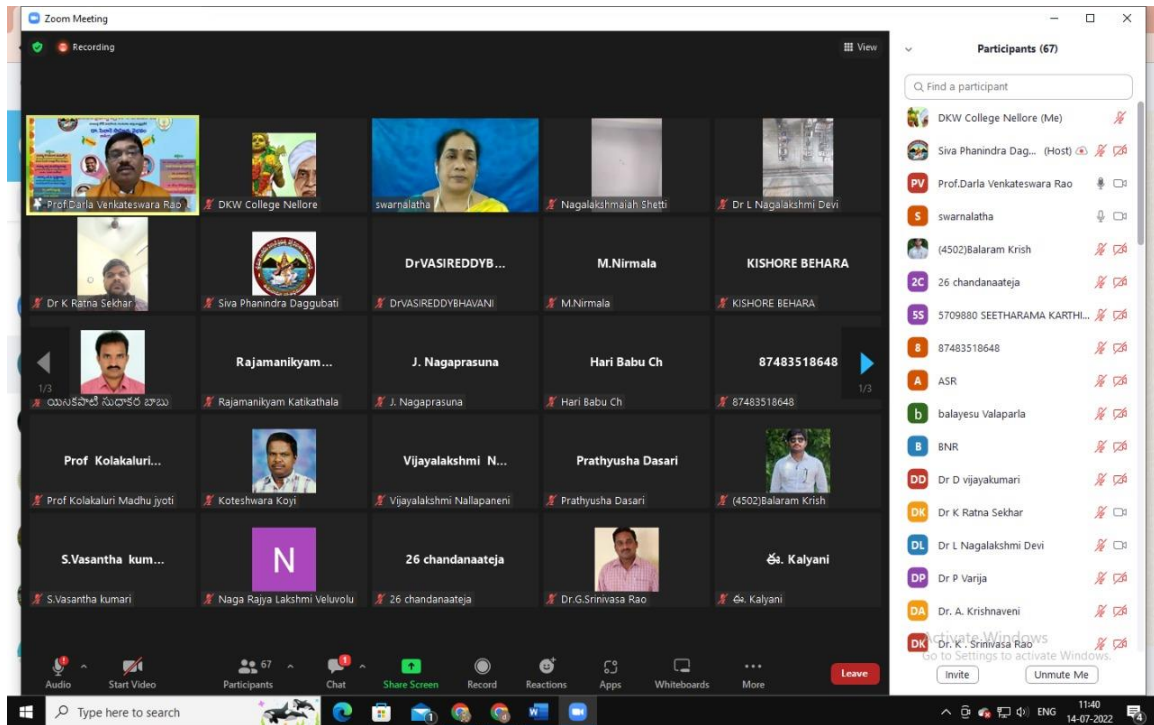

In the valedictory session, the great lyricist Bhuvanachandra participated as a chief guest. He reminded of his cordial relation with Dr. Cinare.

Principal felt happy and announced that the webinar turned to be fruitful. Some of the participants gave their feedback positively and appreciated the organizers. Convenor Dr. G. Swarna Latha thanked everyone for their participation.
