Brief Description:

Awareness program on World population day was conducted on 11. 7. 2023. Dr. k. Srinivasa Rao chaired the occasion and asserted the population control is need of the our world over as the population has crossed 8 billion. India has crossed China in this explosion. So its prerogative is to makeuse of the abilities of youth tomitigate poverty and unemployment. Young people have to analysis 2011 census to face competitive examinations.

Our college Vice Principal Sri Ch. Hari Babu has told that since 1989 World population day has beenobserved on 11th of July everywhere with declaration of UNDP. This year theme of the day 2023 is“unleashing the power of genderequality; uplifting the voices of women and girls to unlock ourworld’s infinite possibilities. Women population is around 49.7%. So getting equal rights on part of with mines their right. Which is the theme of this year and they should raise their voice against discrimination.

Our college academic cell coordinator Sri Rama Kishore Behara, Lect. in Zoology explained Malthuspopulationtheoryandtheimplicationsofpopulationexplosion.

Our College Political Science Lecturer Smt. S. Kavitha, Lect. in Political Science exhorted the ramifications of big families and the trails associated with it. Present generation students have learnt the fruits of nuclear families to minimize excess population.

Sri G. Anjaiah, Lect. in Economics in his concluding talk put the onus on students to educate rural people regarding the implications of over population and big families. Economics department has conducted Quiz competition on the topic and the prizes were distributed by our principal to the winners. Students and Staff participated actively and made the Programme success.
